

Pam Cartor, Ph.D.

Treasurer | Term Expires: 12/31/2022

Dr. Pam Cartor, Associate Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences, completed her BA in Psychology at Stetson University, her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology at the University of Tennessee (Knoxville), and her pre-doctoral internship at the Bingham Child Guidance Center in Louisville. She is interested in the impact of student mental health issues in the classroom and ways that administration can support faculty struggling with mental health concerns. She served as President of KPA in 2014.