

Demi Zoeller, M.A.

KPA Graduate Student Representative
Term Expires: 12/31/2022

Demi Zoeller is a 4th year PsyD graduate student at Spalding University. While she continues to pursue her career in clinical psychology, she is particularly interested in the role psychologists play in advocacy, legislature, and social justice for all Kentuckians. Demi is eager to serve as the KPA Graduate Student Representative and looks forward to supporting and collaborating with psychology students in Kentucky

Diversity Statement: I am a white, cisgender, heterosexual, female who values and honors the intersectionality of all individuals. I am an advocate for folks from minoritized identities and strive to be anti-racist in my personal and professional life.
