

Kari Jones, Psy.D.

Secretary

Term Expires: 12/31/2024

I graduated in 2008 from Morehead State University with a Master's in Clinical Psychology and went on to complete my Doctorate of Psychology from Spalding University in 2014 following the completion of a predoctoral internship at the Lexington VAMC. I have worked in a multidisciplinary group practice, in post-acute care, and now own a private practice in eastern Kentucky where I utilize individual psychotherapy and psychological assessment services. Additionally, I serve as supervisor of record for master's level clinicians. I have served in an adjunct faculty role at the University of Kentucky Counseling Psychology Ph.D. program since 2019, teaching courses in cognitive assessment, psychopathology & diagnosis, and counseling skills. I am also a married mother of two young children who keep me busy with their sports & activities!

Diversity Statement: My identity as an Appalachian woman and mother is important to me and impacts the work that I do every single day.
